STUDIES IN DRAMATIC ART
No. 38

CONTENTS

Articles:
An Inquiry into the Characteristics of Zeami’s Noh Treatment “Kashu” (花辞) in Kadom (花序) and Its Hierarchical Succession ...........................................Michi SHIGETA

Reports:
Articles Related to Noh Derived from the Diary of Kazarama Masaaki ............................
Yuriko MIYAGI, Atsushi IRIGUCHI, Fumie EGBUCHI, Ryusuke KIMURA,
Mitsuki TAKUSAGAWA, Nozomi FUKAZAWA, MikiKO TAKEMOTO
Reprint of Chikusei Mimura’s Diary.
“Fushou-do” Nichibiki” Vol. 23—The Research Group of Chikusei Mimura’s Diary
Reprint of Postcards Addressed to Shiko Tsuchiya from the Collection of the Theatre Museum at Waseda University .................................................Kuniko HAMAGUCHI

Articles:
Beyond Boundaries: The Jewish Play The Dybbuk:Between Two Worlds and the Appearance of Departed Souls in Japanese Traditional Theatre .........................................Zvika SERPER
A Change in French Cultural Policy on Contemporary Dance
- The Activities of Signataire du 20 Août ......................................................Yuma OCHI
Confusion about Americanism in Kinosuke no Okage
- (1950, Makino Masahiro) .................................................................Makiko KAMIYA
Child Spectators and Audience Research in 1950s Japanese Cinema ..........................Daishi KURE
An Ordinary, Singular Image: “Any-Space-Whatever” in Gilles Deleuze’s Cinema ................Hirofumi SUZUKI
From Beckett to the Engineered Sound:
Words and Music, Cescando, and Other Plays for Radio ................................Naoko YAGI

Summaries

The Tsukubouchi Memorial Theatre Museum
Waseda University
2014