

4. Family Law

The Japan Society for Socio-Legal Studies on Family Issues held its 40th Annual Meeting at Aichi Gakuin University on November 11, 2023.

Reports:

Young Scholars' Colloquium

“The Meaning and Limit of the Intentional Element in Biological Parentage Law ~ with Clues from Recent Trends in French Law ~”

Syuhei Yanaseko (Assistant Professor, Hiroshima Shudo University)

Symposium “Family and Society during the Coronavirus Crisis”

- (1) “A Society that includes <Life> and a System that evaluates <Care> - in an Era that Illness has Become Commonplace”

Emiko Ochiai (Professor, Kyoto Sangyo University)

- (2) “Visitation between Children and Non-Resident Parents under a Coronavirus Situation”

Jun'ichi Abe (Associate Professor, Chuo University)

- (3) “LGBTQ and Family during the Coronavirus Crisis - Amplified Vulnerabilities”

Hiroyuki Taniguchi (Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University)

- (4) “Terminal Care that Medical Workers offered to Coronavirus Infected Persons and their Families - What Could be Done at the Time?”

Mayumi Nishimura (Visiting Researcher, Kyoto University)

- (5) “Coronavirus Crisis and Family - from the Viewpoint of Law and Society”

Ayako Harada (Professor, Nagoya University) and Teiko Tamaki (Professor, Niigata University)