

- Filing an Action in an Inherently Mandatory Joint Suit”
Takuya Hatta (Professor, Kobe University)
- (3) “Interest of Supporting Intervention—Reexamination of the Kaneko’s Theory—”
Toshiaki Ito (Professor, Okayama University)

4. Criminal Law and Procedure

The Criminal Law Society of Japan held its 93rd General Meeting at Senshu University on May 23 and 24, 2015.

Individual Reports:

- (1) “Identification of Subjects and Recognition of Negligent Acts in Cases of Concurrent Criminal Negligence”
Masato Okabe (Associate Professor, Ehime University).
- (2) “Criminal Negligence in Defective Products and the Theory of Omission”
Yuichi Inagaki (Associate Professor, Senshu University).
- (3) “On the Criminal Attempts Theory of J. L. E. Ortolan”
Seigo Nakano (Professor, Okinawa International University).
- (4) “Criminal Witness Immunity”
Masaki Enomoto (Professor, Meijo University).
- (5) “Decision on Possibility in Foreseeability”
Hiroyuki Yamamoto (Professor, Daito Bunka University).
- (6) “Decline of Doli Capax in the Course of Criminal Conduct”
Kousei Ono (Associate Professor, Setsunan University).
- (7) “Appropriation in the Crimes against Property”
Daisuke Anazawa (Associate Professor, Meiji Gakuin University).
- (8) “Consent or Coercion: Defining Wrong of Sexual Violence”
Yasutaka Morikawa (Professor, University of the Ryukyus).

Joint Studies:

Section One: The Saiban-in System and Criminal Law Theory

Introduction by Takashi Hashizume (Professor, University of Tokyo).

- (1) “Necessary Defense and Complicity”
Takayuki Shimaya (Professor, Kobe University).
- (2) “Intent and Doli Capax”
Takuto Yasuda (Professor, Kyoto University).
- (3) “Sentencing”
Shintaro Koike (Professor, Keio University).
- (4) “The Saiban-in System and Criminal Law Theory: From Judges Viewpoint”
Masahiro Hieda (Judge, Tokyo District Court).

Section Two: GPS Monitoring

Introduction by Ryo Ogiso (Professor, Chuo University).

- (1) “Electronic Surveillance, Privacy and Warrant Requirement”
Daisuke Midori (Associate Professor, Hitotsubashi University).
- (2) “Investigative Measures that Require Legal Basis: In Comparison with German Law”
Kimihiko Ikeda (Professor, Kobe University).
- (3) “Information Privacy and the Law of Criminal Investigation”
Hiroki Sasakura (Professor, Keio University).

Section Three: Anti-Stalking Act and Criminal Justice Response to Stalking: Prevention of Recidivism among Stalkers

Introduction by Tatsuya Ota (Professor, Keio University).

- (1) “How Do the Police Cope with Stalking Cases?”
Ayako Aoyama (Director of Police Administration, Chiba Prefectural Police Headquarters).
- (2) “Victimization Process in Stalking”
Takahito Shimada (Chief Scientist of the Crime Prevention Section, Department of Criminology and Behavioral Sciences, National Research Institute of Police Science).
- (3) “Psychiatric Perspectives and Practical Approaches”
Hiroki Fukui (Representative Directors, Sex Offenders Medical Center and Partnership Solutions & Supports Center).
- (4) “The Present Situation of Probation for Stalkers”
Soichiro Ui (Special Assistant to the Director of the Supervision Division, Rehabilitation Bureau, Ministry of Justice).

- (5) “A Reconsideration of Protection Order and Criminal Sanctions against Stalkers”
Tatsuya Ota (Professor, Keio University).

Workshops:

- (1) “Current Issues in the Theory of the Criminal Omissions”
Motoki Shizume (Professor, Gakushuin University).
- (2) “Theory of ‘objective Zurechnung’ and Problems of Complicity”
Rikizo Kuzuhara (Professor, Kansai University).
- (3) “Arson, Offenses against Public Safety”
Shuichiro Hoshi (Professor, Tokyo Metropolitan University).
- (4) “Insider Trading”
Tomomi Kawasaki (Professor, Doshisha University).
- (5) “Plea Bargaining in Criminal Procedure”
Katsuyoshi Kato (Professor, Meijo University).
- (6) “Current Problems on Legal Communication between the Accused or Suspects in Custody and the Defense Lawyers”
Hiroyuki Kuzuno (Professor, Hitotsubashi University).
- (7) “Recording of the Interrogation and the Exclusion of Successive Confession and Derivative Evidence”
Shigeki Yanagawa (Professor, Chuo University).
- (8) “Current Status and Issues of Sex Offenders Treatment”
Kouichi Hamai (Professor, Ryukoku University).
- (9) “Recent Reform of Juvenile Training School Law and Juvenile Sound Development Principle in Juvenile Law”
Hiroko Goto (Professor, Chiba University).
- (10) “Criminal Policy for the Women’s Crime”
Emi Yano (Professor, University of the Ryukyus).
- (11) “Principle of Legality in International Criminal Law”
Taiko Ando (Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University).

5. Commercial Law

The Japan Association of Private Law held its 79th General Meeting at