

Directive, RES Directive and Feed-in Tariffs”
Haruhiko Dohman (Rikkyo University)

Poster Session

- (1) “Legitimacy in the EU: from Improving Effectiveness towards Establishing Legitimacy”
Soichiro Satake (PhD Candidate, Doshisha University)
- (2) “A Study of Relationships Between PEGIDA and AfD”
Asuka Umemoto (PhD Candidate, Doshisha University)

2. Plenary Session III: “Populism and the EU as a Regional Actor”

Chaired by Ariyoshi Ogawa (Rikkyo University)

- (1) “The Rise of Right-wing Populist Party in Germany: From Historical Perspective”
Takumi Itabashi (Seikei University)
- (2) “Why French Electorates Are Turning their Back to the EU. An Analysis on Eurosceptic Politics”
Toru Yoshida (Hokkaido University)
- (3) “Populism in Contemporary Italy: The Political Significance and Impact”
Takeshi Ito (The University of Tokyo)
- (4) “A Conclusion of Populism in Greece: The SYRIZA Government since the Eurozone Crisis”
Nanako Murata (Toyo University)
- (5) “Nationalism and Populism in Hungary - Populism of Right-Wing and Left-Wing”
Tsuneo Morita (Tateyama Laboratory Hungary Ltd.)

11. International Law and Organizations

The Japanese Society of International Law held its 2018 Annual Meeting at Sapporo Convention Center on September 3-5, 2018.

Day One

Plenary Session: The Role of Non-Binding Instruments in International Society

Chair: IDA Ryuichi, President, Shiga University

1. The Form and Legal Implication of Final Outcome in the International Law Commission
MURASE Shinya, Member, the International Law Commission
2. The Role of Non-Binding Instruments in International Adjudication and the Functions of Courts and Tribunals
SAKAI Hironobu, Professor, Kyoto University
3. Distinction and Proper Usage of International Commitment and Non-Binding Instruments in Practice
FUKAHORI Ryo, Director, Treaties Division of Ministry of Foreign Affairs
4. Binding Effect of “Non-Binding Instruments” in International Business Disputes
HAYAKAWA Yoshihisa, Professor, Rikkyo University

Day Two

The Honorable Shigeru Oda Commemorative Lectures: Customary International Law in Theory and Practice

Chair: YAKUSHIJI Kimio, Professor, Ritsumeikan University

1. How to Identify Customary International Law: On the Final Outcome of the Work of the International Law Commission (2018)
NOLTE, Georg, Member, the International Law Commission
2. ICJ’s Practice in Determining the Existence of Customary International Law
ABE Tatsuya, Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University
3. Inconvenient Truths about the Identification of Customary International Law in International Criminal Law
TAKEMURA Hitomi, Associate Professor, Hitotsubashi University

Group Session 1: 50 Years after the Adoption of the Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT) and Nuclear Disarmament

Chair: KUROSAWA Mitsuru, Professor, Osaka Jogakuin University

1. The History and Prospects of NPT
OKAMATSU Akiko, Professor, Hosei University
2. The Legal Nature of the Obligation to Negotiate on Nuclear Disarmament in International Law
KITA Yasuo, Associate Professor, Teikyo University
3. The Meaning of Universality in Nuclear Disarmament and Nuclear Non-Proliferation: The History of Prohibition of Nuclear Testing as a Subject Matter
HIROSE Satoshi, Professor, Nagasaki University
4. Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons: Good or Bad?
ABE Nobuyasu, Former Under-Secretary General for Disarmament Affairs, United Nations

Group Session 2: The Reception and Response Towards Scientific and Technical Knowledge in International Law

Chair: TOMIOKA Masashi, Distinguished Professor, Nagoya University of Economics

1. The Formation and Development of the Legal Order of the Law of the Sea and Scientific and Technical Knowledge
NISHIMOTO Kentaro, Associate Professor, Tohoku University
2. Responses Toward Scientific Knowledge in Multilateral Environmental Agreements and the Meaning of the Precautionary Principle
NISHIMURA Tomoaki, Professor, Ritsumeikan University
3. The Direction of International Regulation on AI and Robotic Weapons
IWAMOTO Seigo, Professor, Kyoto Sangyo University
4. International Aspects of the Application of Securities-Related Regulations Toward ICO (Initial Coin Offering)
TAKAHASHI Koji, Professor, Doshisha University

Group Session 3: International Commercial Arbitration and 60 Years of the New York Convention

Chair: NAKANO Shunichiro, Professor, Kobe University

1. Issues and the Concept of Arbitral Award in the Discussions on Amendment of the New York Convention
NAKAMURA Tatsuya, Professor, Kokushikan University
2. Governing Law on the Form of Arbitration Agreement and the New York Convention

NAKABAYASHI Keiichi, Associate Professor, Hiroshima Shudo University

3. Arbitration Procedure Violations, and Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards

OGAWA Kazushige, Specially Appointed Associate Professor, Rikkyo University

4. The New York Convention and Competition Law Claims

NISHIOKA Kazuaki, Assistant, Doshisha University

Day Three

Separate Presentations

Chair: TAIRA Satoru, Professor, Osaka City University

1. The Status of Non-WTO Law in the WTO Dispute Settlement System

KITAMURA Tomofumi, Associate Professor, University of Tokyo

Chair: SHIMIZU Akio, Professor, Waseda University

2. Trade Governance by Treaties, Standards, Indicators: A Case Study on Access to Medicine Index Ranking of Pharmaceutical Companies

NAIKI Yoshiko, Associate Professor, Osaka University

(Collaborating Researcher: KATO Akiko)

Chair: OYANE Satoshi, Professor, Doshisha University

3. Global Governance Theory and International Order in Post Post-Cold War Era

OHTA Hiroshi, Professor, Waseda University

Group Session A: Review of the Living Marine Resources Law in the Era of Globalization: An Attempt at Interdisciplinary Conversation on the Linkage between International and Intranational Law and Policy

Coordinator and Chair: KOYANO Mari, Professor, Hokkaido University

1. Project Aim and General Remarks: Framework, Perspective, Basic Concepts and Others

KOYANO Mari, Professor, Hokkaido University

2. Resource Management ①: Development of Conservation Obligation of Living Marine Resources based on Precautionary Approach and National Enforcement in Japan
HORIGUCHI Takeo, Professor, Sophia University
3. Resource Management ②: Development of International Norms on the Ecosystem Approach and National Enforcement of Japan
OKUBO Ayako, Associate Professor, Tokai University
4. IUU Fishing Measures: Focusing on Enforcement of Agreement on Port State Measures in Japan
TSURUTA Jun, Associate Professor, Meiji University

Commentator: MATSUMOTO Mitsuo, Associate Professor, Osaka University

Commentator: TANAKA Yoshihiro, Associate Professor, Niigata University

Commentator: KUBO Haruka, Professor, Konan University

Commentator: SAKAGUCHI Isao, Professor, Gakushuin University

Commentator: MAKI Kenji, Director of International Fisheries, Fisheries Management Division of Fisheries Agency

Group Session B

Chair: KOGA Mamoru, Professor, Seinan-Gakuin University

1. Heading towards Global Conservation of Fishery Resources through Unilateral Import Restrictions: Analysis of EU's IUU Fishing Regulation
ISHIKAWA Yoshimichi, Lecturer, University of Shizuoka

Chair: SHIN Hae Bong, Professor, Aoyama Gakuin University

2. Prevention of Statelessness in International Law and Nationality Legislation of Japan: From a Historical Perspective
AKIYAMA Hajime, Ph.D. Candidate, Graduate School of International Christian University

Chair: TAKASHIMA Tadayoshi, Professor, Aichi Prefectural University

3. The Movement of the International Trade Law Order and its Foundation: Focusing on Reciprocity
HIRAMI Kenta, Special Researcher, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science

Chair: KITSUKAWA Gen, Professor, Hiroshima City University

4. The Many Approaches toward Abolition of Nuclear Weapons: A Study on Transparency and Verifiability as Shared Foundations
IMANISHI Nobuharu, Director, Arms Control and Disarmament Division of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Group Session C: The Impacts of the International Law Commission's Draft Articles of "Crimes Against Humanity" Towards International Criminal Law

Coordinator: KO Keiko, Professor, Nanzan University

Chair: ABE Yoshinori, Professor, Gakushuin University

1. Historical Significance of Draft Articles on "Crimes Against Humanity" in International Criminal Law System: Focusing on Definition
HIROMI Masayuki, Special Researcher, Sophia University
2. The Relationship Between States Cooperation in Draft Articles on "Crimes Against Humanity" and the Current ICC Regime
TUMAKI Nobuyuki, Lecturer, Chuo University
3. Immunity of State Officials from Criminal Jurisdiction and Amnesty in Draft Articles of "Crimes Against Humanity"
SAKAMAKI Shizuka, Associate Professor, University of Shizuoka

Group Session D: Present Day Assessment of Extraterritorial Service and Collection of Evidence in Civil Litigation

Coordinator: TADA Nozomi, Professor, Seinan-Gakuin University

Chair: HAYAKAWA Shinichiro, Professor, University of Tokyo

1. Present Day Assessment from Public International Law Theory on Extraterritorial Service and Collection of Evidence
NEGISHI Yota, Lecturer, Seinan-Gakuin University
2. Present Day Assessment on Extraterritorial Service
TADA Nozomi, Professor, Seinan-Gakuin University
3. Present Day Assessment on Extraterritorial Collection of Evidence

TAKESHITA Keisuke, Associate Professor, Hitotsubashi University

4. Present Day Assessment on the Practice of Extraterritorial Service and Collection of Evidence

IKEDA Ayako, Senior Counsel, Mori Hamada & Matsumoto